

Simplify Market Data Entitlement Management with Archon

Designed to help firms control costs and reduce compliance risk across their trading environments, Waypoint Archon simplifies market data entitlement management through:

Greater Control

Centralizes entitlement control across individual and firm-level users, vendors, applications and feeds.

Reduced Compliance Risk

Automates exchange reporting to help firms stay aligned with exchange requirements.

Flexible Integration

Integrates with any trading system through a simple API.

Learn more about Archon by contacting us at waypoint@tnsi.com